

AGHOST Observer Protocol and Procedures

Revised 07/04/2014

Revised 10/19/2020

1. It is the Observer's responsibility to keep track of all of the following during an investigation/walkthrough. This includes the following:
 - a. Documenting readings from technician during an investigation or walkthrough
 - b. Documenting readings from psychic during an investigation or walkthrough
 - c. Documenting the environment (e.g. cluttered, clean, chaotic)
 - d. Documenting your own feelings concerning your surroundings
 - e. Documenting what the client states when asked questions by the lead
 - f. Any paranormal events that occur while on a case
2. Observers may also be assigned to other tasks by the team leader.
3. Observers should assist the lead with conducting walkthrough client interviews. Feel free to ask your team lead for training.
4. Observers must work closely with technicians and psychics during walkthroughs and investigations. These readings need to be logged onto their investigators journal.
5. Observers need to work closely with the map on an investigation or a mapper on the walkthrough to comply with designated room assignments when documenting and compiling reports. Please see your lead or the mapper if you have any additional information.
6. Observers must turn in their report to the Lead, including copies of all pertinent data gathered including any video, photo and audio evidence from their own equipment within 2 weeks of a walkthrough or investigation.
7. Observers who participate on walkthroughs may not discuss or reveal any information to other AGHOST members (with exception of other teammates on the assigned walkthrough) regarding the walkthrough prior to the investigation

- a. Observers should document any personal psychic phenomena by writing their experience down onto their investigators journal. This information needs to be then given to the lead.
8. Immediately report any hazardous situations noted on the premises to the team lead.
 9. Completing your investigators journal from beginning of the investigation or walkthrough, to end of the investigation or walkthrough. You can also may also record any events via audio recorder or video recorder, however during EVP sessions these experiences should be written down. These notes should be turned into the lead.
 10. Background chatter and other non-investigation related discussions should be kept to a minimum during the investigation, walkthrough or EVP sessions.
 11. Remember you are the eyes, ears and voice of the entire case.
